ALLEN, Neil — RHP

BORN: Jan. 24, 1958, (22), Kansas City, Kan. HT: 6-2; WT: 185;
BATS: R: THROWS: R: RESIDENCE: Kansas City, Kan.
ACQUIRED: Mets' 11th selection in June 1976 free agent draft. Signed by Russ Sehon and Ed Charles, June 19, 1976.

1979: Made club as fourth starter after strong showing in spring exhibitions, but got off to poor start — losing four of first five starts ... Had 7.65 ERA through May 9 ... Was then relegated to bullpen and stretched losing skein to five straight when Padres beat him in first appearance as reliever ... Recorded first big league victory on May 12 vs. Cards with 1.2 scoreless relief stint in 8-7 win ... Was placed on 21-day Disabled List May 31 when he injured left rib-cage while pitching in St. Louis ... At time of injury, was 1-5 with 7.14 ERA and it appeared almost certain he'd wind up with Tidewater ... Injury to Skip Lockwood, however, left big void in bullpen ... As a result, Allen became No. 1 man in pen upon being activated on June 25 ... From then on, made 38 appearances & recorded 5-5 log with eight saves & 2.06 ERA ... Allowed only two homers in 69.2 innings ... Did not record first save until July 28 vs. Cubs at Shea; then racked up seven over final two months ... Notched fourth win on July 21 over Padres, before dropping next five decisions ... Snapped losing streak final week of season with victories over Cubs & Cards ... From July 1 through July 12, didn't permit a run in six appearance (12 innings) ... Also had scoreless string from Aug. 1 thru Aug. 16 in seven apperances (13.2 innings) ... Didn't allow a run in five apperances during final week of season when he lowered ERA to 3.55 ... Against Eastern Division clubs, was 4-5 with 2.44 ERA & five saves ... Was 6-6 as reliever with 2.51 ERA in 45 appearances ... Credited with save in four of Pete Falcone's six victories.

An exceptional all-around athlete—he won 12 varsity letters in baseball, football and basketball—Allen's prowess as quarterback at Bishop Ward High in Kansas City, lured scholarship offers from all Big 8 conference schools ... He did, in fact, sign scholarship with Kansas State, but felt baseball was his "best approach professionaliy" when Mets drafted him in June '76 ... In 1977—his first full year in pro ball—led Carolina League in strikeouts (126) & percentage (.833); tied for lead in complete games (11) & named to league All-Star team despite fact he was sidelined by mononucleosis from July 26 to season's end ... Also named to All-Star team with Jackson of Texas League in 1978 ... Spent first half of season there before being promoted to Tidewater of International League ... Credits much of his early success to father, who has been blind for last 17 years.

NEW OWNERS FOR NEW METS

Ownership of the New York Mets changed hands for the first time in the club's history this February when Nelson Doubleday announced that Doubleday & Co. Inc. had purchased controlling interest in the team along with Fred Wilpon, Chairman of the Board of Sterling Equities, Inc. of Manhasset, N.Y., and City Investing Company.

The purchase price was $21,100,000—a record amount for a baseball club.

Doubleday, who heads the publishing company which has been in business in New York for more than 80 years, is a great, great nephew of the man who invented the game.

In taking over as Board Chairman of the Mets, the 46-year-old Doubleday said:

"We believe in New York and we believe it is the communications and entertainment center of the world. We also feel New York deserves the greatest team in the world."

Doubleday is a native New Yorker, who served as an officer in the U.S. Air Force for three years following his graduation from Princeton University.

City Investing Company is a $5 billion company with interests in insurance, housing and diversified manufacturers. It has long been identified with New York City through its past ownership of such properties as the Carlyle Hotel, The Helen Hayes and Morosco Theaters and its current ownership of the Home Insurance Company and Rheem Manufacturing Company. Stephen E. O'Neil, 47 years old, a director of the Mets, is City's vice chairman.

Wilpon also is a native New Yorker, who attended Lafayette High School in Brooklyn where he was a teammate of Sandy Koufax on the baseball team. Ironically, Hall of Famer Koufax played first base on that team, while Wilpon was one of the starting pitchers.

His pitching record there won him a baseball scholarship to the University of Michigan, from which he graduated in 1958.

Wilpon, who took over as President of the Mets following the club's sale, is 43.

The Mets were owned by the late Joan Whitney Payson since the club entered the National League in 1962.

Seven years later, the Amazing Mets became the first and only expansion team in sports ever to win a world championship.

They followed up in 1973 by winning a second National League pennant—only to lose the World Series to the Oakland A's in seven games.

Following Mrs. Payson's death in 1975, her husband, Charles Shipman Payson, took over control of the club. His daughter, Lorinda de Roulet, served as club president for the last four years until the Mets were sold on Jan. 24, 1980.

BERENGUER, Juan Bautista — RHP

BORN: Nov. 30, 1954, (25), Aguadulce, Coche, Rep. of Panama. HT: 5-11; WT: 186; BATS: R; THROWS: R; RESIDENCE: Aguadulche, Coche.

ACQUIRED: Signed by Nino Escalera, Feb. 22, 1975.

1979: Spent most of year with Tacoma of Pacific Coast League ... Had 8-8 log with 4.85 ERA and 220 strikeouts in 167 innings ... Won last four starts before Mets recalled him on Aug. 29 ... His 220 strikeouts led league & tied PCL mark set by Al Stanek of 1964 Tacoma club ... Fanned 18 batters vs. Salt Lake City on May 22; also struck out 14 men in one game and 13 batters on three different occasions ... Recorded 10 or more strikeouts 10 times with Tacoma ... Following recall by Mets, was 1-1 in five starts, defeating Cardinals 6-2 in first game of Sept. 28 doubleheader at St. Louis — allowing two runs in 7 1/3 innings, his longest big league outing ... Lost to Phils' Steve Carlton, 2-1, on Sept. 13 at Shea, even though he allowed only one run in 5 1/3 innings ... Struck out 25 men in 30 2/3 innings during brief stint with Mets ... Was fairly consistent in that he yielded two or less runs in four of his five starts — pitching more than five innings in all five starts.

Lettered in baseball & track (100-meter dash) in high school and played amateur baseball with Panamanian national tean, 1972-74 ... Once had no-hitter going for eight innings vs Cuba during international tournament in Venezuela, only to lose 2-0, on back-to-back homers in 9th ... Fastball has been clocked at 100 mph & some baseball men insist only Nolan Ryan throws harder ... Named to Texas League All-Star team in 1977 when he topped loop in strikeouts (160), averaging eight per game ... Also led league in walks (126) for second straight year ... In 1978, was named International League's Most Valuable Pitcher ... Also named to I.L. All-Star team same year.

BOMBACK, Mark — RHP

BORN: April 14, 1953, (27), Portsmouth, Va. HT: 5-11; WT: 170.
BATS: R; THROWS: R; RESIDENCE: Somerset, Mass.
ACQUIRED: From Milwaukee for Dwight Bernard, Oct. 26, 1979.

1979: Spent spring training with Milwaukee Brewers, who assigned him to Vancouver on March 25, where he was immediately frozen on roster ... Then went on to become winningest one-season pitcher in Vancouver's PCL history ... Also became league's first 20-game winner since 1966 ... His credentials of 22-7, along with 2.56 ERA were so impressive, Sporting News named him Minor League Player of the Year ... Pitched four-hitter over Albuquerque in first start ... Overall, completed 16 of his 33 starts — working 246 innings, during which time he tossed five shutouts ... Finished season by going distance in final five outings and closed year with 29 shutouts innings — including one-hitter over Hawaii ... Credits super year to fact "I was getting my pitches over the plate. I'm basically a breaking ball pitcher. When I throw breaking stuff for strikes, it makes my fastball more effective."

Won letters in baseball, football and basketball at BMC Durfee H.S., Fall River, Mass ... Played American Legion ball from 1968-70 ... Signed by Red Sox scout Wilfred (Lefty) LeFebvre ... Had 19-6 record with Winter Haven & Pawtucket in '72 ... Pitched seven-inning no-hitter in 1-0 win over Orlando, June 20, '72 ... Spent six years in Red Sox organization, where he compiled 59-51 log ... Was out of baseball when Brewers signed him as free agent in 1977 ... Made major league debut with Milwaukee on Sept. 12, 1978 against Seattle.

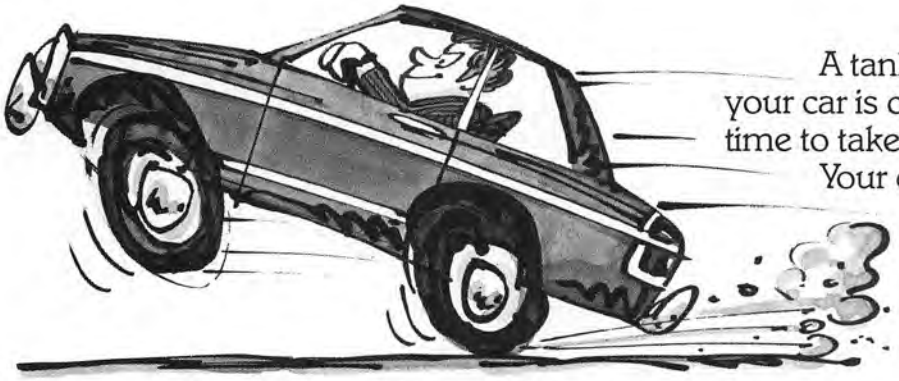
Don't drive your car to drink.



A tankful every now and then can't hurt. But if your car is constantly hitting the gas pump, it may be time to take stock of the situation and ask yourself why. Your car may not be totally to blame.

For instance, do you know that, contrary to popular opinion, warming up your car for long periods in winter doesn't benefit your car?

But it sure wastes gasoline.

So do other things you may never think of. Like driving on tires that are under-inflated. Or over-inflated.

Or like letting your air filter get clogged.

Then there are the more obvious ways to drive a car to drink. Jackrabbit starts which never seem to get you anywhere any faster, except to the next red light. Then you slam on the brakes and waste more gasoline.

Hundreds of thousands of gallons of gasoline are also wasted every year by untuned cars. And, of course, by not obeying the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit.

If people were a little more careful about the way they treated their cars, we'd have less of a drinking problem here in America.

In fact, if everybody saved just one gallon of gasoline per week per car, we could reduce foreign oil imports by over 10%.* That's why Getty Oil would like nothing better than to see every car drink a little less. That way we'll all get more miles for our money.

*Percentage as of 2/14/80. Subject to change.

INTRODUCING A GREAT NEW CAMP FOR YOUNG BASEBALL PLAYERS!

Young baseball players—some of whom are bound to be the "pros" of tomorrow—can now enjoy and benefit from the kind of detailed instruction that has never been available in such a pleasant, professional environment.

It all happens at the LEE MAZZILLI ALL-AMERICAN BASEBALL CAMP, in Garden City, N.Y., for young ball players aged 8-18.

The Camp's staff includes: Davey Lopes, Craig Swan, Doug Flynn, Joe Torre—and Lee Mazzilli himself.

Young players are grouped by age, ability, experience and physical development. They can be overnight campers or simply day campers. And they can learn everything from fundamentals to advanced skills from professional baseball scouts, as well as top-flight coaches from high schools and colleges.

All serious young baseball players, and their parents, are invited to learn more about the LEE MAZZILLI ALL-AMERICAN BASEBALL CAMP by mailing for a free brochure, or calling Bob Hirschfield (who's a professional baseball coach) at (516) 922-7133.

THE LEE MAZZILLI ALL-AMERICAN BASEBALL CAMP
St. Paul's School, Garden City, N.Y.

HENDERSON, Stephen Curtis "Hendu" — OF

BORN: Nov. 18, 1952, (27), Houston, Tex. HT: 6-1; WT: 188;
BATS: R; THROWS: R; RESIDENCE: Houston.
ACQUIRED: From Cincinnati with Pat Zachry, Doug Flynn and Dan Norman for Tom Seaver, June 15, 1977.

1979: Opened season with flourish by hitting safely in seven of first eight games at .382 clip ... Several weeks later — when average dipped to .256 in mid-May—batting coach Dick Sisler suggested he return to hitting stance he used when he first joined Mets in 1977, his most productive year ... Upon doing so, Hendu showed immediate improvement ... His bat really sizzled in one stretch from July 5 through July 21, when he hit at .483 clip in 14 of 15 games — going 28-58, with five doubles, five triples, a homer & eight RBIs ... As a result, raised averaged from .272 to .309 ... Nine days later, on July 30, suffered severe sprin of left ankle sliding into third base in game at Pittsburgh ... Placed on Disabled List following day and wasn't reactivated until Sept. 17 ... Returned to action as pinch-hitter in 2nd game of doubleheader on Sept. 25 at Chicago in only appearance following injury and singled home game-winning run in 10th inning to give Mets 4-3 victory ... Other big hits during season included two-run homer off Kent Tekulve in 7th inning at Shea on May 28 that proved winning margin in 10-8 victory over Pirates; also 8th inning triple in opener of twin bill on July 13 at Shea vs. Giants that drove in game-winning in 7-6 Met triumph ... Overall, had seven game-winning hits during year in the 98 games he played, which placed him runner-up on club to Lee Mazzilli's eight ... Had eight triples before being injured (he shares club record of nine with Frank Taveras & Charlie Neal) ... Hit Padres' pitching unusually well—going 20 for 43 (.465) vs San Diego ... Batted .406 vs. left-handed pitching (49-120) ... Hit .356 at Shea as opposed to .256 on road ... His 13 stolen bases matched his career high set in '78 ... Made only two errors in field & was credited with six assists ... Attended Winter Instructional League after season to strengthen injured ankle ... Also played briefly in Puerto Rico before injuring shoulder while chasing fly ball.

BORN: Aug. 16, 1948, (31), Passaic, N.J. HT: 6-0; WT: 192;
BATS: L; THROWS: L; RESIDENCE: Arlington, Tex.
ACQUIRED: From Texas on Oct. 23 1979, as player-to-be-named later in Willie Montanez deal of Aug. 12, 1979. Mets also acquired Ed Lynch in same deal.

1979: Was enjoying fine start — batting .287 in 41 games with six homers and 16 RBIs — until May 28, when errant pitch by Red Sox' Andy Hassler beaned him in game in Texas ... Returned to action three days later as pinch-hitter on May 31 ... But suffered relapse and went into convulsions — following which, doctors discovered clot on brain ... As a result, missed entire month of June before returning to uniform on July 1 ... Saw limited action rest of season.

Starred in baseball, basketball and track at Francis Lewis H.S. (Flushing, N.Y.) and later attended St. John's Univ. in Jamaica, N.Y. for two years before signing first professional contract with Mets organization in 1966 ... Saw part-time service with Mets in 1968, '70 & '71 before being traded to Expos, along with Ken Singleton and Tim Foli for Rusty Staub on April 5, 1972 ... Spent five years with Montreal, mostly as first baseman, and won Gold Glove award in '73 ... Following year — his best in majors — batted .310 and capped season with dramatic two-run homer off Bob Gibson on Oct. 1 at Jarry Park to knock Cards out of NL's Eastern Division title race ... Expos traded him to Oakland A's for pitcher Stan Bahnsen on May 22, 1977, and played out option at end of season ... Signed as free agent with Texas, Jan. 21, 1978, before returning to Mets last Oct.

OLD TIMERS DAY

Celebrating the 10th Anniversary of the 1969 World Champion Mets . . .

Nobody really believed 10 years had passed, but the calendar doesn't lie. Seaver, Koosman, McGraw, Ryan and Dyer were still playing Major League ball, and Garrett was in Japan. Gaspar couldn't make plane connections and efforts to contact Koonce and Pfeil were futile. But the rest of the players were at Shea to recall biggest moment in the Met's colorful history—the Miracle of 1969.

Former teammates Swoboda & Kranepool flank Bill Shea.

Mrs. Johnny Murphy & Mrs. Gil Hodges—wives of late championship architects—Piggy & Rube.

Gary Gentry—winner of game 3 of '69 series—meets Dodger legend Carl Erskine.

'69 Mets in '79

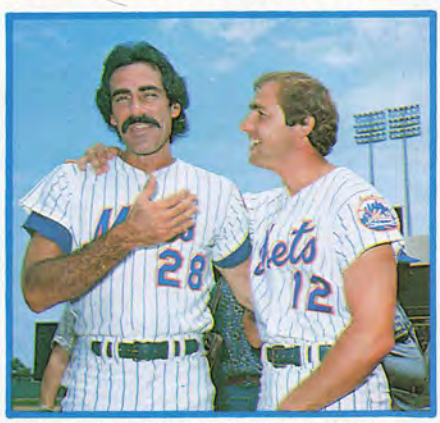
'69 hero Tommie Agee awaits formal introduction.



Old buddies Shamsky & Boswell reunited.

Broadcast booth teammates—Lindsey Nelson, Ralph Kiner.

1979

. . . And the selection of Willie Mays to Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Mainstays of N.Y. Giant pennant winners—Wes Westrum, Willie Mays.

The date was July 14th and in just a few weeks, Willie Mays would be enshrined in baseball's Hall of Fame. Former teammates and opponents—friends all—flock to Shea Statium to give him a rousing send off to his rightful place among baseball's immortals.

Konica FS-1

THE WORLD'S FIRST 35MM SLR WITH BUILT-IN AUTOWINDER

The incredible Konica FS-1 . . . far ahead with five-way automation. It combines the most advanced electronic sophistication with full creative control, allowing unprecedented photographic freedom.

AUTO LOAD
Drop in any standard 35mm cassette; extend the leader; and close the back. That's all.

AUTO START
Immediately after closing the back, the FS-1's electronic "brain," the Central Processing Unit (CPU), automatically takes over and advances the film to frame #1.

BUILT-IN AUTOWINDER
After shooting a picture, the built-in micro autowinder automatically advances the film. For sequence shooting, hold down the shutter button. You can shoot a full 36-exposure roll in under 22.5 seconds with precisely accurate exposure of each frame. We've eliminated the need for the conventional advance lever!

AUTO EXPOSURE
The Konica FS-1 features Konica's famed Shutter Priority exposure system.
You set the camera's shutter speed to match the subject action. The ultra-sensitive, Gallium Arsenide Phosphide (GaAsP) photo cell assures precise automatic exposure, displayed by LEDs in the viewfinder.

Konica Shutter Priority exposure assures sharp clear results. Aperture Priority exposures may cause slow shutter speeds.

AUTO FLASH
The matching Konica X-24 Auto Electronic Flash is linked to the camera's CPU. Automatically the Konica FS-1 advises the X-24 flash of ASA film speed and then adjusts both lens aperture and shutter speed for correctly exposed flash pictures everytime.

NEW HEXANON FLAT FIELD 2X TELECONVERTER
Doubles the effective focal length of most automatic Konica Hexanon lenses while retaining all of the optical quality and sharpness of the original lens. For example, it converts the 135mm to a 270mm long tele for sports and nature shooting.

See the Konica FS-1 at your dealer today. Ask for your gift from Nancy Lopez, top ranking Pro Tour player: the Golf Tips/Photo Guide which Nancy says will help "make your every shot count."

Spring Training

The making of a great player

Even the great Babe Ruth started small.

Chances are, little George Herman Ruth had nothing more than a wad of gum in his pocket and a wide-eyed look on his face when he gripped his first baseball bat some 75 years ago. But after years of training, he became America's greatest baseball legend.

To be a great player today, in any field, it still takes training. And that's where Thomas can help. Our comprehensive music training program, "Musical Encounters," will make a great player out of anyone who has that wide-eyed love for organs.

See your local Thomas organ dealer about class lessons in your area. And get ready for your "spring training."

If you're traveling to a major league city, you need a major league airline. And that's TWA. Because every day TWA flies to 14 major league cities—14 cities 7 days a week. Those are some pretty impressive numbers.

Of course a city doesn't have to have a big league team to be served by TWA. We fly to 24 other cities in the U.S., as well as 13 cities in Europe and the Middle East. And they don't play baseball at all over there.

So on your next road trip, fly

The tastiest, juiciest flavor this side of Home Plate!

featured at Shea Stadium

The Franks, Super Dogs and Big Mets that taste so great at Shea Stadium are Kahn's . . . The Official Hot Dog of the New York Mets.

They're extra tasty because the ingredients are tender cuts of lean beef and juicy pork, with absolutely no fillers, no artificial coloring. Pick up some at your favorite food store and enjoy them at home as well.

WHEN WE SAY WE LOVE SPORTS, WE'RE NOT JUST PLAYING AROUND.

Inside every MHT executive, branch manager and teller, there beats the heart of a third baseman or tennis star or golfer.

That's why Manufacturers Hanover sponsors more sports events in the New York area than any other bank.

Because, just like the twenty employees in this picture, all 16,000 of our MHT employees feel that the spirit of New York sports, the players and the fans, represents the best that our city has to offer.

Whether it's the Jets fighting for the play-offs, the Rangers scoring at the Garden, the Boys' Club Little League in the South Bronx or the Westchester Golf Classic, it's all part of the excitement and determination that is New York.

And bringing these events to you is where MHT fits in.
